The Owner agrees that the Company may properly record such Easement(s);

3. Covenants for Exclusive Use

The Owner covenants with the Company that the Owner shall not use nor permit the use of the cable television system installed by the Company or its agents, or any part of such system for any purpose other than the transmission of the Company's signal. In particular, but without limitation, the Company's installed cable television system shall not carry signals from or become attached to a master antenna, individual outdoor antennas, antennas for reception of signals from satellites, other cable systems or operators, or any other means of providing television signals.

4. Duration

This Agreement shall continue for a period of ten (10) years from the date first written above. This Agreement shall extend for additional periods of one (1) year each if neither party gives the other notice of termination at least six (6) months prior to the commencement of the respective one (1) year period.

5. Compensation and Billing

If this is a "bulk agreement" (see above):

a) the Owner agrees to pay for the services provided herein in accordance with the listed billing option more fully set forth in Exhibit B, which shall be completed by the parties and which will be incorporated by reference, provided, however, that this Agreement shall not be effective until the terms of Exhibit B are agreed to and the parties execute and deliver a copy thereof. In the event that the parties fail to agree to and execute a copy of Exhibit B within _____ (30) days of the day first written above, then this Agreement shall be void ab initio;

b) the Owner shall be responsible for all costs of collection, court costs and all reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by the Company in the event that collection is required hereunder or legal action is required to recover any equipment owned by the Company;

c) payment shall be made to the Company on a single billing each month, commencing with activation under this Agreement. The Owner agrees to render payment no later than the 20th day of the month. The Company agrees to furnish the Owner with a monthly billing statement showing the service rendered to the Owner. Such statement must be reconciled with records maintained by the Owner prior to payment.

The Company agrees to install, maintain and operate its cable television system(s) in accordance with the terms set forth herein at all locations agreed upon by the parties hereto and as more fully set forth in Exhibit A to this Agreement, which is incorporated by reference herein.

7. Legal Status

It is understood and agreed that:

- a) no agency, employment, joint venture or partnership is created hereby or between the parties hereto;
- b) the business to be operated by the Company is separate and apart from any which may be operated by the Owner;
- c) the Company is not an affiliate of Owner;
- d) no representation will be made by either party which would create an agency or partnership relationship;
- e) the Owner shall have no power or authority to act for Company in any manner to create obligations or debts which would be binding upon the Company;
- f) the Company shall not be responsible for any act or omission of the Owner, its employees, agents, servants or invitees. The only relationship between the parties shall be that as set forth herein.

8. Right To Terminate

- a) In the event of any breach or default hereof by the parties, which breach, or default shall not have been cured within thirty (30) business days after receiving notice specifying such breach, or default, than either party may immediately, or at any time thereafter, terminate this Agreement upon written notice to the other party.

b) The Company may terminate this Agreement by notice to the Owner if the Company is unable to install, operate or maintain the cable television system for any reason beyond its reasonable ability to control.

c) This Agreement shall terminate if the Company is denied the right to serve the Property by a court, by a public body or by a state agency, and such denial is not contested by the Company or agents thereof, at the Company's sole option.

d) If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 4,8(a) or 8(b) or otherwise, then the Company shall have the right, but not the obligation to disconnect, render inoperable or remove its cable television system. The Easement, covenants, and agreements set forth in Sections 1(f), 2(e), 3, 7 and 9 above shall continue for the reasonable time following termination and to the extent reasonably necessary for Company to accomplish the disconnection, inoperability or removal.

e) Prior to the end of the term of this Agreement, including any extensions hereof, this Agreement and the rights of the parties hereunder may also be terminated:

i) by written agreement executed by the parties hereto;

ii) at the Company's option in the event of any conveyance of the Property at a foreclosure sale or otherwise to or for the benefit of the Owner's creditors.

The Company agrees to reasonably cooperate with the Owner in executing, delivering and filing such documents as are necessary to evidence such termination or expiration.

g) In the event any portion of the cable television system operated, installed or maintained hereunder becomes damaged, vandalized or in a state of disrepair, the Company will, within thirty (30) business days of written notification of such condition by the Owner, diligently proceed to repair, replace or remove the defective equipment. In the event that the Company does not diligently proceed to repair, replace or remove said equipment within said thirty (30) business days, the Owner shall have the right, without liability to the Company, to remove said equipment from the Property and this Agreement shall terminate.

h) In view of the difficulty of determining the amount of damages which may result to the Company from any termination of this agreement pursuant to Section 8(a) above, Owner shall pay the Company, not as a penalty but as liquidated damages, an amount equal to the product of (i) seventy-five percent of the Monthly Service Charge in effect immediately preceding the effective date of such termination, multiplied by (ii) the number of full and partial months remaining in the Initial Term or the Renewal Term as the case may be.

9. Indemnification

Each party (sometimes hereinafter referred to as the "Indemnitor") hereby agrees to indemnify the other party (sometimes hereinafter referred to as the "Indemnitee"), against, and to hold the other harmless of and from any and all liability, loss, damage, and expense, including without limitation, reasonable counsel fees and costs which the Indemnitee may suffer or incur by reason of any breach of any warranty, representation or agreement made by the other party herein, or by reason of any action or proceeding asserted or instituted, arising from such breach. The Indemnitee shall give the Indemnitor hereunder prompt written notice of the institution of any action or the making of any claim which, if sustained, would result in the Indemnitee being entitled to indemnification hereunder, and the Indemnitee will cooperate with the Indemnitor in the defense and settlement of any such action or proceeding. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 9, while it is the Company's intent to operate its cable television system within generally acceptable technical standards, and on a twenty-four (24) hour basis, it is expressly understood that the Company is not liable to the Owner for signal quality, nor for outages, for whatever duration or for whatsoever reason.

10. Successors

This Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of the Owners, successors, heirs and assigns to an interest in the Property, and to the Company's successors and assigns. The parties agree that they will give prompt written notice of any such successor or assignee.

11. Notices and Payments

a) Any and all payments notices, designations, consents, offers and acceptances and/or any other communications provided for herein shall be addressed to the Owner, or the Company, and shall be delivered at the address as first set forth above or at any other address which may be specified in writing by the parties hereto. All notices required to be given hereunder shall be given in writing, sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, and shall be deemed effective five (5) days after such mailing.

b) The Company agrees to appoint one of its employees to be the prime contact for Owner to communicate with as needed.

12. Governing Law

a) This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Utah as to interpretation, construction and performance.

b) Both parties agree to be bound by and comply with the terms of any agreement that the Company may have with the City/County/Town of Ephraim, which may affect the terms of this Agreement.
